WORK CREATIVELY AND FREELY

A swivel chair for more freedom of movement

New ideas are on the agenda where creative and communicative work is carried out. The exchange of ideas within the team, the quick change of workplaces and spontaneous brainstorming rounds make a decisive contribution to this process. This is where the se:motion net comes into play: With its puristic design and air-permeable knitted membrane, it brings along the lightness that is required for spontaneous, flexible work.

TOGETHER AND FLEXIBLE

Cosy comfort for every workplace

se:motion net stands out with its unique, kinematic movement concept and the well-proven seating comfort which is achieved without any adjustment effort. The shape with the custom-made knitted membrane and the design with the height-adjustable armrests are particularly suitable for agile workplace concepts, whether for start-ups, co-working areas or home offices. It is the simple idea of flexibility that makes the se:motion net special – just sit down and get started.

Active and ergonomic sitting at any time

Simplicity of use and ergonomics are not contradictory terms: The seat cushion, the backrest with adjustable lumbar support and the height-adjustable armrests ensure comfort and promote a healthy sitting posture. Upright or leaned back – the generous opening angle of 23 degrees encourages more movement when sitting.

VERSIONS AND DIVERSITY

The ideal model for office and home office

Whether in black or pale grey, the se: motion net exudes a sense of dynamic lightness. The backrest is equipped with a comfortable knitted membrane that is air-permeable and breathable. Black, grey, red and petrol are available for the colour design. The seat upholstery can be chosen in a matching colour from the Sedus fabric collections. The perfect match for the working environment – classic and timeless for the office or cosy and chic for the home.
